Dear Parents/Carers

As part of our commitment to keeping children safe, I would like to draw your attention to a short film that Leicestershire Police have produced. It tells the story of Kayleigh Haywood who was groomed online and subsequently raped and murdered. The clip can be found via this link:

The film is quite hard-hitting and the police advise that it would be given a 15 certificate if it was on general release, so we will not be showing it in school. However, the message behind the film is vital and well worth discussing with your child. Whilst our students are well educated in keeping safe online, we know that many of them still take risks and regular reminders are useful.

Please contact me if there is anything about this that you would like to discuss.

Yours sincerely,
