Dear Parents/Carers

We are coming towards the end of the exam season, and I am sure that you will be glad when it is all over. Thank you for the continued support; attitude towards the exams remains positive and we are expecting good results in the Summer.

There will be a small change to arrangements on Thursday 16th June. Regardless of what the timetable says, ALL Year 11 students will have an intensive revision session for the Physics exam on Friday. This will begin at 12.30 and run through the school lunch break until a 1.45 finish, when students will be dismissed from school.

We would appreciate your support in ensuring 100% attendance for this session as it will be vital final preparation for the exam.

Yours faithfully,
