City Learning Trust Debate
Stoke Council Chambers

On Thursday 17th November Mrs Griggs and six of our students attended the City Learning trust debate at the Council Chambers. This is her report of what happened on the day:

'It was a pleasure to be able to hear young people from schools from across the City Learning Trust (CLT) debating many of the most important issues in our world today. The topics for the debate were generated from the United Nation's Global Goals for Sustainable Development. Trentham High School was represented by Emily Astbury, Evie Davies, Harry Goetzee, Zaina Hussain, Danny Sanders and Tehniyat Shahid (pictured below). We argued that our goal, "Promoting just, peaceful and inclusive societies", was more important than the goals presented by the other schools. These included reducing inequality, ending poverty, ensuring healthy lives and combatting climate change. The students worked hard to prepare their facts and arguments. The quality of the debate was excellent and the arguments were passionate. I would like to congratulate our students for their hard work and effort in preparing for the debate and for representing themselves and the school so well.'

Sunset on the Somme - Act of Remembrance at Trentham Mausoleum

On Friday afternoon, staff and students from Trentham High School, under the guidance of Mrs Johnson attended the 'Act of Remembrance' which was held at the Mausoleum. Several members of the local community were also in attendance. Following the service Mrs Johnson received the following thoughtful and kind message from Mrs Marilyn Vigurs of the Trentham World War One Project:

'Many thanks for making all the arrangements for the School's contribution to the Act of Remembrance in the Mausoleum today. The students blended in very well and the readers - John Parrish and Chloe Wright - spoke up beautifully. The bugle player (Aimee Mulroy) did us proud with her rendition of the Last Post and the acoustics in the Mausoleum made it sound fabulous. It felt a worthy and respectful event for the men of Trentham who died in WW1 and particularly those who died at the Somme. It was also a good turn out from the community and we older members felt proud to stand alongside the next generation, in the hopes that they will now ... '

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Rugby Success - Under 16's County Cup

Trentham High School 51 - 17 Thomas Alleyes School - (Uttoxeter)

Well done to the under 16's rugby team (pictured below) that played last Wednesday. The team gave an excellent account of themselves against a very strong and physical opposition.

In a very keenly contested first half, Trentham had the edge leading the opposition by 20 - 7. The decisive factor on the evening was the strength of the Trentham backline. Ben Twigg and Tristian de Jager were an ever present threat with their pace and strength enabling them to beat the opposition on numerous occasions. James Nightingale playing at scrum half made some very intelligent decisions during the course of the evening. Glenn Parrish, Elliot Jackson and Zac Milner complemented the backline with their industry and angles of running and support play.

Captain Harry Chidlow proved a great asset in the scrum and lineout, and standout performances by Elijah Stone and Tom Latham in the pack helped the team in retaining possession. The final score was 51 - 17.

Tries were scored by the following players: Ben Twigg (3), James Nightingale (2), Tristian de Jager (1), Zac Milner (1), Elijah Stone (1) and Glenn Parrish (1). Ben Twigg converted 3 of the tries.

For his outstanding work rate and industry the man of the match performance was given to Jerry Huan.

The team will now have to travel to Leek to play Westwood College in the next round.

Clayton Academy 0 - 2 Trentham High School

Well done to the under 16's football team that travelled to Clayton on Wednesday evening. Goals from Lewis Jones and Kyle Johnson secured a very pleasing win against a well organised Clayton team. Mr Ablewhite was extremely pleased with the 'team' performance. 'They played exceptionally well throughout the evening and deserved the victory.' Well done to all who played.
